Room E-11

Study: Lessons from the Pastoral Epistles

We will continue in our study of the Pastoral Epistles this semester. These letters are often thought to be helpful just to those in leadership in the church. Yet the qualifications for those in leadership are traits that every follower of Christ should pursue. Come, join us in this study as we learn to faithfully follow our Lord in every aspect of our lives.

SEEKERS OF HIS HEART
The Chapel (Women)

Study: Knowing God by His Hebrew Names

“Those who know my Name will put their trust in Me” Psalm 9:10. We will learn how God revealed His nature and character to men and women in the Old Testament who responded by giving Him personal, intimate names. Each name gives us a picture into who He is and His desire for us to walk in accordance to His holy standard.

Facilitators: Carolyn Opderbeck
Ermetta Olson

Study: The Book of Revelation

Join us as we continue in our study of the Book of Revelation. This book reminds us that world events happen for a reason and that God has a plan and is in control. Many people avoid the Book of Revelation because they believe that it is too difficult to understand. That is not true! Come early for fellowship, coffee, and bagels, and let's learn together.

Facilitator: Blucher Chacon

Study: The Book of John

We will be continuing in our study of the Gospel of John. Chapters 1-12 of this book are built around seven public miracles, or "signs" that Jesus performed. Come and learn how these "signs" all point to deeper theological truths and show us that Jesus is God.
